Dr. M. ARUL
DIRECTOR
ANNAMALAI UNIVERSITY
(Accredited with “A” Grade by NAAC)

The Annamalai University was founded in the year 1929 by the munificence and single-minded devotion of the far-sighted and noble-hearted philanthropist and patron of letters, the Hon'ble Dr. Rajah Sir Annamalai Chettiar of Chettinad, Kt., LL.D., D.Litt. Since then, during these eighty five years, the Annamalai University has grown into a premier, unitary, residential institution of higher learning and research.

The University today is spread over an extensive campus of about one thousand acres and has the Faculties of Arts, Science, Indian Languages, Engineering and Technology, Education, Fine Arts, Agriculture, Medicine and Dentistry and, in all, they comprise 49 Departments of Study.

Annamalainagar is a busy and self-contained University township, east of Chidambaram town, the abode of Lord Nataraja, the Cosmic Dancer. The sprawling and scenic campus enclosing the Departments of Studies, Students' Hostels, Staff Residential Quarters, Playgrounds, etc. is situated at a holy place (Tiruvetkalam, currently known as Annamalainagar), 2 kms from Lord Nataraja Temple.

The Sir C.P. Ramaswamy Aiyar Library, the third biggest in Tamil Nadu, has a collection of more than 5 lakh volumes besides journals, reports and rare palm-leaf manuscripts. It has all the modern facilities including E-mail, Internet and Microfilming, etc.

The University, being unitary and residential in character, has about 30,000 students, pursuing various on-campus programmes of study and more than 10,000 of them are accommodated in its 19 hostels, acclaimed to be the biggest in the country.

The University plays a vital role in disseminating knowledge acquired through research to the surrounding rural areas in which it is placed and it serves the larger community through its Centre for Adult Education and Extension, Centre for Rural Development and Uplift of Weaker Sections, the Department of Community Medicine, the Rajah Muthiah Dental College, the NSS; and above all, through its Directorate of Distance Education, it takes education to the doorsteps of thousands of adult learners all over the country and abroad.

The Directorate of Distance Education established in 1979 offers more than five hundred different programmes of study. It is credited with the largest enrolment in India and is well equipped with computer and other infrastructure, adequate teaching faculty and administrative set-up of its own study centres, computer training centres, etc., to serve its students in their best interest at their door steps. It has also the unique distinction of being the first in India, to offer Postgraduate Degree Programmes in Applied Psychology, Physics, Chemistry, Zoology, Botany, Bioinformatics and Law through Distance Education mode. The Directorate of Distance Education is also offering Programmes in Fashion Design, Textile Design, Interior Design, Hotel Management and Catering Technology, Retail Management, Health Science, Yoga, Music, Fire and Safety, Pharmaceuticals and online programmes.

The Directorate has introduced B.Ed. Degree Programme through distance education mode from the year 2008-09 with the approval of the National Council for Teacher Education, New Delhi.
To The Registrar

Sir,

Sub: Recognition of Educational Qualifications.

I am directed to refer to your letter No. B1/10906/88 dated 9.10.1988 without its enclosures regarding recognition of qualification for the purpose of employment under the Central Government and to say that the degrees/diplomas awarded by the Universities established by an Act of Parliament or State Legislature, Institutions deemed to be Universities, under section 3 of the UGC Act 1956 and Institutions of National Importance declared under an Act of Parliament stand automatically recognised for purpose of employment under the Central Government. No formal orders recognising such degrees/diplomas are necessary to be issued.

Yours faithfully,

CAUTION

The Directorate of Distance Education has not authorised any Private Institute or Agent to act on its behalf in the grant of admissions, collection of fees, tutorials etc. and therefore will not own responsibility in the event of anyone being cheated by any such bogus institute or individual.

Candidates are therefore warned not to become victims of Cheating and Exploitation by bogus claimants in this regard.

Candidates are advised to apply directly to the Directorate or contact its Study Centres/Information Centres individually for application form as well as for admission. Applications for admission received through tutorials or any other agency will be summarily rejected.

Further, if it transpires at any time during the programme of study that a student had applied for admission through tutorials or any other agency, his admission will be cancelled and the student will not be entitled to any relief whatsoever as against the Directorate of Distance Education, including refund of tuition fees.

OTHER CONTACT FACILITIES

(A) Message Alert Service (MAS)

The Message Alert Service introduced in the DDE is a boon to distance learners. To make use of this service, students have to register their cell Phone number. Students will receive automated communications in message format on their cell phones such as admission confirmation, despatch of lessons, PCP schedule, reminders of last date for payment of fees, examination results etc.

(B) SHORT MESSAGE SERVICE (SMS)

A computerized Short Message Service (SMS) has also been introduced to reply to students’ queries through cell phone messages. Students can get information regarding admission, lessons despatch, payment details, personal contact programme details, examination results etc. by just sending messages to the Cell phone number 9442551111. A computer server maintained in the D.D.E. will send the reply messages to the students’ cell phone immediately. (Annexure - II).

(C) WIDE AREA NETWORK (WAN)

Wide Area Network (WAN) connectivity has been established in major study centers by the D.D.E. The centralised Database will facilitate the collection of all the details pertaining to programmes offered, admissions, tuition fee, enrolment status, despatch of study materials, examination register number, venue, results and issue of certificates besides information related to PCP etc and students’ grievances will get settled instantly.

VIDEO CONFERENCING

The Directorate of Distance Education has introduced Video Conferencing facility during the academic year 2011-12 for the benefit of students in New Delhi, Chennai and Annamalainagar. Personal Contact Programme and special lectures will be conducted for selected programmes through video conferencing.
UNIVERSITY EXAMINATIONS

Application forms for registration for the examinations will be sent in the month of February/March by The Controller of Examinations, Annamalai University to all the students who have paid their tuition fees in full before 10th February. Information regarding Centres of examination, time-table, fees payable and other regulations governing the examination will be sent to the students along with that Application Form.

Those students who do not receive the examination application form for any reason before the end of March are required to apply to the Controller of Examinations for sending them the examination application forms quoting the enrolment number, programme of study etc. Non-receipt of examination application form is not an excuse for not registering for the examination.

The Examination Application form, Time-Table, Fee details etc. can also be downloaded from the University website www.annamalaiuniversity.ac.in.

If, inspite of this warning, a student failing to fulfil the attendance requirement gets himself / herself registered for the examination and writes the examination his/her results will be cancelled.

ELIGIBILITY FOR EXAMINATION

1. Students failing to attend the PCPs are not eligible to sit for the examination held at the end of the year(s).
   Attendance at the PCPs are compulsory. Students are required to attend the classes conducted in each of the subjects.
2. The course lectures delivered is to be counted up to the last day when the classes break for preparatory holidays.
3. On completion of the internal assessment of all disciplines.
4. Depositing the examination fee as per prescribed rules.
5. Obtaining nil arrear clearance of tuition fee from PCP Centre.

HALL TICKETS/ADMIT CARDS

Hall ticket and Examination schedule can be downloaded from our website:
www.annamalaiuniversity.ac.in

The intimation of venue of examination with the examination Register No. will be sent to the students by the Controller of Examinations one week prior to the commencement of examinations. Even if a student does not receive the same, he/she is required to see the Newspaper advertisement to be made by the D.D.E., regarding the centres and venue etc., in the leading newspapers during the month of May/December and he/she may also contact the Study Centres / Inter National Institute of Fashion Design Centres for the same.

Further, even if a student who applied in time duly for registration of examinations, has not received any venue intimation he/she is required to contact the Chief Superintendent of his/her examination centre with the xerox copy of his/her examination application form, the Demand Draft for examination fees and acknowledgement etc., to enable the Chief Superintendent of the Centre to allow him/her to write the examination provisionally subject to the confirmation by the Controller of Examinations.

Candidates will not be permitted to appear in the Examination without their Hall Ticket.

EXAMINATION RESULTS AND ISSUE OF MARK LISTS
